Winery Jobs, DtC Shipments Increase by Double Digits

A dramatically higher pace of winery hiring and a substantial increase in direct-to-consumer shipments highlighted the Wine Industry Metrics for July. Wineries boosted their hiring activity by 29% from the July 2012 level to staff tasting rooms and prepare for harvest. DtC shipments reached their low point of the year so far, but that point was still 15% higher than July 2012. In off-premise sales, domestic wine gained 6% in value.
