2013 Sales Were Biggest in December With $742 Million

Sales of domestic wines grew 6% in December compared to December 2012, according to IRI, the Chicago-based market research firm, and analysis by Wines Vines Analytics. December was by far the biggest month of the year, with $742 million in sales. Domestic table wines grew by 7% in December, but a 2% drop in domestic sparkling wine sales drew down the overall rate.

Pinot Grigio/Gris Becomes No. 3 Varietal After Chardonnay and Cabernet

Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon held their places as the No. 1 and No. 2 top-selling varietal wines off-premise in 2013. The No. 3 position shifted, however, as growing sales raised Pinot Grigio/Gris 11% to surpass Merlot sales, which declined 2%. The red blends/Meritage category grew fastest at 18%, followed by Fume/Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir, both with 12% increases.
